HOLIDAY & WORKSHOP

Design Meets Blossom

Iconic Rooms, a Floral Workshop and vinyl nights at Aurora from October 4 to 8, 2026

Minimum stay: 2 nights including breakfast

10% discount for direct bookings (email or phone)

Stay at the newly redesigned Aurora by feld72 — the lobby, restaurant and café bear the signature of Hannes Peer, AD100-listed. The night gets even better when you add one of the new Iconic Rooms: clean lines, fine materials, a feel for the rhythm of the city.

On Wednesday, your Edible Floral Workshop awaits at the Aurora Café: curated by Eva von Ingram Harpf, a blend of botany, still life and snacks — plus a floral cocktail in hand. You'll create your own composition from edible and non-edible elements — berries, leaves, fruits and seasonal flowers — to take home or enjoy right there.

In between, you'll have time to wander through Merano, its lanes, cafés and quiet corners away from the promenade. And in the evening, a visit to our Restaurant Arté.

And on Thursdays, Thomas Strappazzon and Alessandro Cappelli from Pianopiano Record Store take over the turntables at the Listening Bar — Oreille, vinyl, no genre limits.

GOOD TO KNOW:

- » Requirements — Comfortable clothing is recommended; the workshop involves hands-on work.
- » The workshop — Wednesday, October 7, 6:00–8:30 PM, at the Aurora Café. Curated by Eva von Ingram Harpf. 6–20 participants, €80 per person (not included in the room rate)
- » Room tip: The Iconic Rooms, designed by Hannes Peer.
- » Music & cocktails — Every Thursday, 7:00–11:00 PM, Oreille Listening Sessions at the Listening Bar with Thomas Strappazzon & Alessandro Cappelli.
- » Discount available only through direct booking (email/phone).
